

Sylvia V. Bastani, CFRE, CPC
SENIOR ASSOCIATE

Sylvia Bastani is an experienced fundraising and nonprofit management professional and consultant, executive coach, teacher, and innovation expert. Before becoming a consultant, Sylvia served as the Assistant Vice President of Advancement for The Williamson School, where her leadership was instrumental in doubling the school's endowment. Sylvia also served as Managing Director of Major Gifts at the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, contributing to the success of the $450 million Huntsman Hall campaign.

As a fundraising consultant, coach, mentor and teacher, Ms. Bastani has helped a wide variety of nonprofit organizations achieve their fundraising goals and enhance their missions.

Sylvia serves on the board of the Association of Fundraising Professionals/Greater Philadelphia Chapter, and is a member of Greater Philadelphia Planned Giving Council and the International Society of Executive Coaching. She is an adjunct faculty member at Rosemont College, where she teaches leadership courses.

Ms. Bastani holds her B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Pennsylvania. She earned the international designation of Certified Fundraising Professional Executive (CFRE) in 2009 and is a certified executive coach.

Contact Sylvia at sbastani@comcast.net or at 610-937-8069.

Partnering for Mission

106 West State Street, Kennett Square, PA 19348 610-925-5925
1880 Superfine Lane, Suite 9, Wilmington, DE 19802 302-530-6806
www.macintyreassociates.com