Katie Druckenmiller
Senior Associate

Katie has a diverse background in the corporate and non-profit sectors. She started her career with SEI Investments, in Oaks, PA working with mutual funds. Katie then used the foundation to transition to a Major Gifts Officer in higher education.

In addition to her professional experience, Katie is an active volunteer for her church and their ongoing Capital Campaign. She serves as the Vice-Chair of this campaign. Katie holds a Bachelors Degree from Ursinus College and currently lives in Royersford, PA with her husband and two young daughters. She is an active community volunteer, with much of her volunteer focus residing in her daughters' schools and her home church.

In addition to spending time with her family, Katie enjoys reading, sewing and crafting.
