

Regina Horton Lewis
Senior Associate

Regina brings to MacIntyre Associates an educational background and professional experience in the field of nonprofit management and development. With a degree in organizational management and leadership for nonprofit agencies, Regina is unique in her ability to recognize issues facing nonprofits and work with boards and executives in designing strategies and solutions to address them.

Regina is currently the Executive Director of Chester County Community Dental Center. She served for five years as Executive Director of the Friends Association for the Care and Protection of Children, the oldest child welfare agency in Pennsylvania. In that position she brought the agency out of deficit spending, managed a $1.2M budget and improved measurable client outcomes.

Regina's previous professional leadership positions have been in the areas of community health and community development with a proven track record in the areas of improved budget and finance practices increased funding from grants and donations, and successful collaborations among nonprofits with congruent goals. She was previously a successful executive in the corporate world with an emphasis on personnel education and management, marketing and project management.

Volunteer activity in the community has included service on numerous Boards in the Chester County area: Coatesville Area Partners for Progress, Chester County Women's Commission, Bi-County Mental Health Advisory Board and Coatesville Area School Board among others. She was also chapel organist at Lincoln University and Jr. and Sr. Choir Director at Bethel A.M.E. Church.
