

Angela M. Scully
Senior Associate

Angela Scully comes to MacIntyre Associates with over 30 years of fundraising and nonprofit management. Angela managed special events and raised money for Congressional, Senate and Gubernatorial campaigns. Moving from Washington to Pennsylvania, her fundraising background led to management of non-profits where special events and raising money are essential to success of an organization.

Angela has served as Executive Director of Musicopia, a music outreach program; Director of Development at Friends School Haverford, managing the 119 year old School's first successful capital campaign. As Executive Director of Singing City, a 105 voice symphonic choir with an educational program in Philadelphia public schools, she established an endowment for the 60 year old choir and led the group through a strategic planning process. As Executive Director of the Darlington Arts Center Angela provided second generation leadership following the retirement of the founding director after 33 years.

A member of the Board of the Delaware Valley Art League, Angela is an accomplished painter.
